DETAILED ACTION

Remarks

1. In response to communications filed on June 21, 2006, claims 3 and 17 are cancelled; claims 1-2, 14-16, and 27 have been amended, and no new claims have been added. Therefore, claims 1-2, 4-16, and 18-27 are still presently pending in the application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 15 and 18-27 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
  - The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
- 4. Claims 2 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claims 2 and 16 discloses "without use of items", which fails to comply with the written description requirement. Any negative limitation or exclusionary proviso must have basis in the original disclosure. If alternative elements are positively recited in the specification, they may be explicitly excluded in the claims. See In re Johnson, 558 F.2d 1008, 1019, 194 USPQ 187, 196 (CCPA 1977) ("[the] specification, having described the whole, necessarily described the part remaining."). See also Ex parte Grasselli, 231 USPQ 393 (Bd. App. 1983), aff 'd mem., 738 F.2d 453 (Fed. Cir. 1984). The mere absence of a positive recitation is not basis for an exclusion.

- 5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
  The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 6. Claims 2 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 2 and 16 disclose "so far as possible" which renders the claim vague and indefinite, because it is unclear as to what "so far as possible" signifies in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

7. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-2 and 4-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because claim 1 does not disclose a tangible medium. Apart from the utility requirement of 35 U.S.C. 101, usefulness under the patent eligibility standard requires significant functionality to be present to satisfy the useful result aspect of the practical application requirement. See Arrhythmia, 958 F.2d at 1057, 22 USPQ2d at 1036. Merely claiming nonfunctional descriptive material stored in a computer- readable medium does not make the invention eligible for patenting. For example, a claim directed to a word processing file stored on a disk may satisfy the utility requirement of 35 U.S.C. 101 since the information stored may have some "real world" value. However, the mere fact that the claim may satisfy the utility requirement of 35 U.S.C. 101 does not mean that a useful result is achieved under the practical application requirement. The claimed invention as a whole must produce a "useful, concrete and tangible" result to have a practical application.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed on 21-June -2006, with respect to the rejected claims 1-2, 4-16, and 18-27 have been fully considered but they are not found to be persuasive:

In response to applicants' arguments regarding claims 2 and 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, the arguments have been fully considered but are not found to be persuasive, because "without use of terms" is still not disclosed within the written description and makes the claim vague and indefinite.

In response to applicants' arguments regarding claims 2 and 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, the arguments have been fully considered but are not found to be persuasive, because "so far as possible" makes the claim vague and indefinite.

In response to applicants' arguments regarding claims 1-2, and 4-13 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101, the arguments have been fully considered but are not found to be persuasive, because a tangible medium equals a tangible result as is disclosed in "State Street Bank & Trust Co.". There must be a tangible medium in order to obtain a result otherwise it is considered abstract.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
